

Final Oral Test 35%

Wednesday 26th

Instructions:

1. Create a group of 4 students and sign up your names in the following link:
<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1nM7uK99dqK8MZKf5uri7pAS1S7kBNW2FplwLwU3da5Y/edit?usp=sharing>
2. Once in the classroom, your teacher will assign a role for each one of the pairs of students.

Example:

Student Council – University Administration Negotiation
The student council wants better conditions on campus; the university must protect its budget.
ROLE CARD A - University	ROLE CARD B – Student Council
1. Cafeteria prices • Prices stay the same • 5% discount • 15% discount for students	1. Cafeteria prices • 15% discount for students • 5% discount • Prices stay the same

3. As pairs, you must discuss all the points and persuade the other pair to accept what you consider is best for your role.
4. This time, the roles will be given on the very same day of the oral evaluation.
5. You will have 2 minutes before the negotiation begins to plan what you are going to say.
6. You can plan and take notes on a blank piece of paper before and during the negotiation.
7. You will have between 6 to 8 minutes for the negotiation, exploring all the options and then come to an agreement.
8. Each idea that each student gives must be supported with reasons and details.
9. Marks are individual.
10. The negotiation will be audio-recorded.
11. You will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

Category	1 – Poor / Not Evident	2 – Needs Improvement	3 – Fair	4 – Good	5 – Excellent
Fluency & Interaction	Very hesitant or unable to sustain dialogue.	Frequent pauses or dependence on notes; limited interaction.	Some pauses or repetition; interaction is basic but functional.	Mostly fluent; minor hesitation; interacts well with partner.	Speaks naturally and confidently; keeps conversation flowing; responds spontaneously and helps partner continue.
Vocabulary & Expressions of opinions	Incorrect or inappropriate vocabulary; cannot express key ideas.	Repetitive words; rare use of negotiation language.	Limited vocabulary; few negotiation expressions.	Adequate range of vocabulary; some use of negotiation phrases.	Uses a wide range of words and negotiation phrases (e.g., “ How about we compromise on... ”); appropriate tone.
Grammar & Accuracy	Errors prevent comprehension.	Frequent errors that make communication unclear.	Several noticeable grammatical errors but still understandable.	Mostly correct; minor errors that don't affect meaning.	Uses structures accurately and appropriately throughout.
Supporting ideas and details	No reasoning or negotiation strategy; cannot reach agreement.	Weak reasoning; few details; limited compromise.	Basic reasoning; ideas somewhat supported; partial agreement.	Good reasoning; some support for ideas; tries to find fair solutions.	Presents clear, logical arguments; supports ideas with reasons; reaches balanced agreement.
	1- Fair	2- Good	3- Excellent
Pronunciation & Intonation	Understandable but with several pronunciation issues.	Mostly clear; occasional mispronunciations but meaning is clear.	Clear and natural pronunciation; uses intonation effectively to express ideas and negotiate.
Body Posture & Eye Contact	Some eye contact but limited nonverbal communication.	Generally confident posture and eye contact; minor lapses.	Maintains confident posture, natural gestures, and steady eye contact; fully engaged with partner.		