

ORAL QUIZ 3

Instructions:

- 1. Choose a classmate to work in pairs and prepare for this oral evaluation.
- 2. Sign up for the date on which you are going to be present with your classmate in the following link:
<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1ji5hmtBv4hg1N1Mc5TqF8L5ZWOikIvTkGnCrjsfE3A/edit?usp=sharing>
- 3. Decide with your classmate if you are going to role play the role cards A or B in advance. Despite this, your teacher can reassign the pairs for role A or B in order to have equal pairs in the discussion.
- 4. On the day of the oral quiz, you will negotiate a topic chosen at random, but you will have the opportunity to prepare in advance. See the situations on the next page.
- 5. In case that your classmate is not present for the oral evaluation, you will have to be ready to present alone against the other team.
- 6. Each idea must be supported with reasons and details.
- 7. Marks are individual.
- 8. The negotiation will be audio-recorded. You will have 20 minutes.
- 9. You will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

Category	1 – Poor / Not Evident	2 – Needs Improvement	3 – Fair	4 – Good	5 – Excellent
Fluency & Interaction	Very hesitant or unable to sustain dialogue.	Frequent pauses or dependence on notes; limited interaction.	Some pauses or repetition; interaction is basic but functional.	Mostly fluent; minor hesitation; interacts well with partner.	Speaks naturally and confidently; keeps conversation flowing; responds spontaneously and helps partner continue.
Pronunciation & Intonation	Unclear speech; communication breaks down frequently.	Often difficult to understand; mispronunciations affect meaning.	Understandable but with several pronunciation issues.	Mostly clear; occasional mispronunciations but meaning is clear.	Clear and natural pronunciation; uses intonation effectively to express ideas and negotiate.
Vocabulary & Expressions	Incorrect or inappropriate vocabulary; cannot express key ideas.	Repetitive words; rare use of negotiation language.	Limited vocabulary; few negotiation expressions.	Adequate range of vocabulary; some use of negotiation phrases.	Uses a wide range of words and negotiation phrases (e.g., “How about we compromise on...”); appropriate tone.
Grammar & Accuracy	Errors prevent comprehension.	Frequent errors that make communication unclear.	Several noticeable grammatical errors but still understandable.	Mostly correct; minor errors that don’t affect meaning.	Uses structures accurately and appropriately throughout.
Content & Negotiation Strategy	No reasoning or negotiation strategy; cannot reach agreement.	Weak reasoning; few details; limited compromise.	Basic reasoning; ideas somewhat supported; partial agreement.	Good reasoning; some support for ideas; tries to find fair solutions.	Presents clear, logical arguments; supports ideas with reasons; reaches balanced agreement.
Listening & Response	Does not listen or respond appropriately; ignores partner’s points.	Rarely reacts to what partner says; minimal engagement.	Sometimes listens but responses are partially related.	Usually responds appropriately; shows some awareness of partner’s ideas.	Actively listens and responds directly to partner’s ideas; shows understanding and adapts answers naturally.
Body Posture & Eye Contact	Closed body language; no eye contact; disengaged.	Poor posture or avoids eye contact frequently.	Some eye contact but limited nonverbal communication.	Generally confident posture and eye contact; minor lapses.	Maintains confident posture, natural gestures, and steady eye contact; fully engaged with partner.

Parent–Teen Curfew Negotiation A parent and their teenage child are meeting to discuss new household rules.
ROLE CARD A - Teen	ROLE CARD B - Parent
1. Curfew time. • 3 pts: Midnight • 2 pts: 11 p.m. • 1 pt: 10 p.m. 2. Phone use after 10 p.m. • 3 pts: Allowed if homework done • 2 pts: Only on weekends • 1 pt: Not allowed 3. House duties • 3 pts: Takes care of pets and laundry • 2 pts: Cleans the house three times per week. • 1 pt: Clean the house and do the cooking	1. Curfew. • 3 pts: 10 p.m. (3 pts) • 2 pts: 11 p.m. (2 pts) • 1 pt: Midnight (1 pt) 2. Phone use after 10 p.m.. • 1 pt: Not allowed after 10 p.m. • 2 pts: Only on weekends • 3 pts: Allowed if homework done 3. House duties • 1 pt: Takes care of pets and laundry • 2 pts: Cleans the house three times per week. • 3 pts: Clean the house and do the cooking

Professor – Student Negotiation A student wants to improve their grade and flexibility for a project; the professor wants fairness and academic integrity.
ROLE CARD A - professor	ROLE CARD B - student
1. Deadline • 3 pts: Deadline unchanged • 2 pts: Extra 2 days (max) • 1 pt: Extra week 2. Grade review • 3 pts: Keep grade as is • 2 pts: Allow one short correction task • 1 pt: Re-grade full project 3. Participation policy • 3 pts: Attendance mandatory (80%) • 2 pts: Extra task to replace one absence • 1 pt: Flexible attendance	1. Deadline • 3 pts: Extra week • 2 pts: Extra 2 days • 1 pt: Deadline unchanged 2. Grade review • 3 pts: Re-grade entire project • 2 pts: Short correction task • 1 pt: Keep grade as is 3. Participation policy • 3 pts: Flexible attendance with online tasks • 2 pts: Extra task to replace one absence • 1 pt: Mandatory attendance

Student Council – University Administration Negotiation The student council wants better conditions on campus; the university must protect its budget.
ROLE CARD A - University	ROLE CARD B – Student Council
1. Cafeteria prices 3 pts: Prices stay the same 2 pts: Small discount (5%) 1 pt: Big discount (15%) 2. Library hours 3 pts: Close at 8 p.m. 2 pts: Close at 9 p.m. 1 pt: 24-hour library 3. Funding for events 3 pts: Keep current budget 2 pts: Add small grant for one event per semester 1 pt: Increase budget by 50%	1. Cafeteria prices 3 pts: 15% discount for students 2 pts: 5% discount 1 pt: No discount 2. Library hours 3 pts: 24-hour library 2 pts: Close at 9 p.m. 1 pt: Close at 8 p.m. 3. Funding for events 3 pts: 50% increase in budget 2 pts: Small grant (one event per semester) 1 pt: Keep current budget

Holiday Vacation Between Two Families Two families are planning a joint vacation but have different preferences.
ROLE CARD A – Family A	ROLE CARD B – Family B
1. Destination 3 pts: Beach resort 2 pts: Countryside village 1 pt: Mountain camp 2. Accommodation 3 pts: Hotel with meals 2 pts: Rental house 1 pt: Camping 3. Expenses 3 pts: Pay equally (50/50) 2 pts: Share according to income 1 pt: Pay for own activities only	1. Destination 3 pts: Mountain camp 2 pts: Countryside village 1 pt: Beach resort 2. Accommodation 3 pts: Camping 2 pts: Rental house 1 pt: Hotel 3. Expenses 3 pts: Pay for own activities 2 pts: Share according to income 1 pt: Pay equally (50/50)